

6516206333.txt

XM adding traffic and weather to the existing line up is fantastic. I pay for the service, I expect nothing less. I also pay for satellite tv and I love my Weather Channel. So having weather and updated real time traffic information on my XM service, is definitely of value and the quality is not available on normal non-subscription type radio. I would like to see the FCC refrain from the NAB's petition 04-160.